

Conference/Trip Application for Course Credit

You are being allowed to register as a non-degree at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary upon the completion of this form, with the understanding that you must submit a complete application (application, application fee, recommendations, spiritual autobiography, and transcripts from all educational institutions attended) by the end of the semester if you wish to enroll as a degree-seeking student.

Please note the following:

- Enrollment as a non-degree student is granted for one semester only.
- Future admission to a degree program is contingent upon the decision of the Admissions Committee based upon the receipt of the application.
